

Columbus Humanities Arts and Technology Academy (CHATA) is an award-winning public charter school approaching its 20th year serving the families of North Columbus. Located along Morse Road between I-71 and The Outerbelt, CHATA's K-8 global learning community represents over 40 ethnicities and highlights cultures through World Language instruction, class projects, and school-wide activities.

The accredited academic program is enriched with a Humanities and Arts focus that is interwoven through all subject areas. Students are encouraged to demonstrate courage through confidence, creativity through practice, and compassion through experience with a school motto of "who dares wins". In addition to core subjects, students participate in Art, PE, Music and Technology classes during the school day. Extracurricular activities include a wide variety of sports, financial literacy, and leadership programs.

MISSION STATEMENT

To be a community resource developing life-long learners prepared to contribute purposefully to society. Columbus Humanities Arts and Technology Academy will be a model school with an integrated, innovative curriculum based on high standards emphasizing the arts and technology, strong community, parental involvement, and intensive teacher training.
